

Wolves Camp-ins • February 10-11 & March 9-10, 2012

Join Catawba Science Center and Piedmont Council of Boy Scouts of America for a night to remember. Camp-in classes feature activities from the Cub Scout Handbook, allowing campers to work toward activity badges.

Wolves Camp-in Activities

Science of Kites

Learn the facts of flight as you follow Bernoulli's principles. Build your own kites and learn how to fly them safely.

Wildlife

Become acquainted with an endangered species as you work toward the Wildlife Conservation belt loop and academics pin.

Machines

Experiment with levers, incline planes and more. Make and use a windlass.

Native American Lore

Make a Native American craft and learn a legend. Play a game that children once played when Columbus came to America.

Morning activities include exploration of CSC exhibits and Science Shop, plus a digital program in CSC's planetarium theater. Activities conclude at 9:30 a.m.
